

The UM Libraries Diversity Team Presents...

LGBT Forum II

Wednesday, November 28, 2007

10:00 a.m. to Noon

Special Events Room, McKeldin Library

Recently, Maryland's highest court upheld a state law banning same-sex marriage. What does this decision, and other recent legislative and judicial actions around the country, mean for gays and lesbians, and for all citizens? Do you know the differences between a civil union and a civil marriage? What are the hidden costs of this "separate but unequal" system, and how does it affect our workplace?

Please join your library colleagues, the Diversity Team, and our special guests for LGBT Forum II, a lively discussion of the state of lesbian, gay, bisexual and transgender rights in the state of Maryland and beyond.

CHRIS EDELSON
State Legislative Director,
