Guidelines: In cases where photographs involving individuals are staged to appear in a newspaper, newsletter, magazine, or other print media outlet; in an electronic format such as on a CD or a website; or where photographs are intended to illustrate an advertisement, signed photographic release forms, sometimes called "models release forms," must be obtained prior to publication. Photographic release forms are not required for photography of spontaneous news events or for photographs of individuals on commonly accessible public property, such as a park or a public street.
