

Celebrate 10 Years of Information Literacy!

The UM Libraries' Information Literacy Team invites you to join the festivities this spring!

Thank You Celebration

March 8, 2006 * 10:00-11:30am, McKeldin Library, Special Events Room

Come one, come all! Join us for a reception recognizing everyone who has contributed to the success of the Libraries' wide spectrum of instruction programs! This kick-off event will feature a talk by Joan Lippincott, Associate Executive Director of the Coalition for Networked Information (CNI), on "NetGen Students, Learning and Libraries."

Academic Integrity Week

April 2-7, 2006 * College Park Campus

Watch for programs and events highlighting the importance of ethical research practices this week. Sponsored by the Student Honor Council with support from the Libraries' Academic Integrity Committee.

Digital Dateline: Netspeak

April 5, 2006 * 3:00-4:30pm, McKeldin Library, Special Events Room

Improve your chat and e-mail communication skills through this presentation on the language of Netspeak. Cosponsored by the Digital Reference and Information Literacy Committees. RSVP Kim Ricker kmr@umd.edu.

Librarians as Teachers: Building a Culture of Teaching in Academic Libraries

May 4, 2006 * 11:00am-12:00pm, McKeldin Library, Special Events Room

Join Dean Scott Walter, University of Kansas, for an informative presentation on education, librarianship, information literacy instruction & professional and continuing education for academic librarians.

LOEX 2006 Conference

May 4-7, 2006 * Inn & Conference Center @ UMUC

The University of Maryland Libraries are hosting the 34th Annual LOEX Conference. LOEX brings together 250 information professionals from across North America, who share an interest in library instruction and information literacy.