Request for Permission to Photocopy

NOTICE: WARNING CONCERNING
COPYRIGHT
RESTRICTIONS

The copyright law of the United States (Title 17, United States Code) governs the making of photocopies or other reproductions of copyrighted material.

Under certain conditions specified in the law, libraries and archives are authorized to furnish a photocopy or other reproduction. One of the specific conditions is that the photocopy or reproduction is not "used for any purpose other than private study, scholarship or research." If a user makes a request for, or later uses, a photocopy or other reproduction for purposes in excess of "fair use," that user may be liable for copyright infringement.

Photocopying: If you would like to photocopy Special Collections material you must first complete this form and submit it to the Circulation Desk. Researcher may not make photocopies until a Library Staff member has examined the item and approved. Library Staff is only available Monday-Friday 9 am -5 pm. At times other than these, the request must be left with the item at the Circulation Desk. On the next business day, a Library Staff member will contact the researcher with the decision.

- Staff reserves the right to refuse to accept a copying order if, in its judgment, fulfillment of the order would cause damage to the item
- Staff reserves the right not to fulfill a request if photocopying may harm the materials; if the staff have reason to believe the copy may be used for any purpose other than private study, scholarship, or research; or if the researcher requests a copy of more than one article or contribution from a copyrighted collection or publication.
- The reproduction or publication of materials may require both permission from the copyright holder plus payment of a license or other fee to the copyright holder and/or the Libraries. If reproduction, such as digitization or photography is needed, please fill out the Rights and Reproduction Request Form, available at the Circulation Desk.
