Cole Field House – Completed the first round of moves, mostly McKeldin shelving and some Hornbake caging.

Café progress - Construction of the café has NOT begun! (Expected completion December 15th):

 Facilities Management now has the project under review. It is hoped that any construction issues and start delays will not delay the opening

- The Grand opening will take place in the spring, early February. This will allow Dining Services time to work out any issues that occur upon opening.

▪ We are holding off on a name, but for now McKeldin Café –

- It is hoped that this may be a good naming opportunity. The PR team is looking at some possibilities for interim names.
