The University of Maryland, College Park invites applications and nominations for the position of Dean of the University Libraries. The University is a member of the Association of American Universities (AAU) and is the flagship of the University System of Maryland. Located in the Baltimore-Washington corridor within easy commuting distance of both the nation’s capital and the state capital, the University enjoys close proximity to the Library of Congress and National Archives as well as to numerous specialized libraries such as the Folger Shakespeare Library and the National Library of Medicine. The University ranks among the top 20 public universities, with over 35,000 students engaged in nationally and internationally recognized programs in undergraduate and graduate studies.

The University of Maryland Libraries comprise eight distinct libraries holding more than 3.5 million volumes and representing a diverse array of special collections, digital collections, and electronic resources: McKeldin Library (general collections), and separate branch libraries for architecture, performing arts, arts, special collections and archives, library media services, chemistry, engineering/physical sciences, and the Shady Grove branch. The Dean occupies a critical place in the University System of Maryland and Affiliated Institutions (USMAI) consortium of libraries, which shares services among sixteen institutions. The Libraries is an active member of the Association of Research Libraries (ARL), the Committee on Institutional Cooperation (CIC), Center for Research Libraries (CRL), the HathiTrust, OCLC, and the Northeast Research Libraries Consortium. We also are development partners in the Kuali Ole (http://www.kuali.org/ole) and Academic Preservation Trust (http://www.aptrust.org) projects. Additional information about the University Libraries is available at http://www.lib.umd.edu/, including the Libraries’ strategic plan at http://www.lib.umd.edu/about/deans-office/mission.

Information for the University of Maryland, College Park is located at http://www.umd.edu/.

The University of Maryland seeks candidates who are committed to building a great university library acknowledged on the regional, national, and international stage. We seek candidates who can leverage our considerable academic strengths as a major research university, the unique advantages offered by our location, and our overriding commitment to excellence in education and research. The successful candidate must be dynamic, strategic, entrepreneurial, and innovative in recognizing and exploiting opportunities as well as in identifying and overcoming constraints. Ultimately, the successful candidate will provide the leadership to develop and achieve a vision of a university library in the 21st Century. The search committee seeks talented candidates from traditional as well as non-traditional library backgrounds. Significant experience in a complex research library environment as well as fundraising is preferred. The successful candidate will be qualified and accomplished, eligible to be awarded the rank of Librarian IV with Permanent Status or that of Professor in an academic unit (for a description of librarian titles, see http://www.faculty.umd.edu/policies/lib_titles.html).
Applicants and nominees should submit a letter of interest; curriculum vitae; and the names, addresses, and telephone numbers of at least four persons who can be contacted by the search committee for reference. Nominations are encouraged and will be received at any time. Confidential review of nominations and applications for this position will continue until the position is filled. For best consideration, all materials should be received by December 1, 2014. Please send all materials to librariesdeansearch@umd.edu, or:

Search Committee for Dean of the University Libraries
Attention: Ms. Carol Granger
1119 Main Administration Building
University of Maryland
College Park, MD 20742-5031
Tel (301) 405-7211 Fax (301) 405-8195

“The University of Maryland, College Park, actively subscribes to a policy of equal employment opportunity, and will not discriminate against any employee or applicant because of race, age, sex, color, sexual orientation, physical or mental disability, religion, ancestry or national origin, marital status, genetic information, political affiliation, and gender identity or expression. Minorities and women are encouraged to apply.”