

A Conversation with
DEBORAH NELSON

SPONSORED BY

Wednesday
February 24
4:30 pm

McKeldin Library, Room 6137
Special Events Room

Come hear the story of how Pulitzer Prize-winning journalist Deborah Nelson and military historian Nicholas Turse gained access to the U.S. Army's secret archive of Vietnam-era war crimes investigations, "the largest compilation of U.S. war-crime reports from the Vietnam conflict ever to surface." The War Behind Me describes the author's search for answers from the men accused of committing atrocities, the witnesses who reported them, and the higher-ups who covered them up.

