Abstract:	Dr. Donald McGinnis (1917-2016) was a prominent band director, clarinetist, flutist, teacher, and clinician through the middle of the 20th century. He served as the woodwind instructor and assistant director of the Concert Band and Marching Band in 1941 at the Ohio State University. In 1952 he was promoted to be the director of the Ohio State University Concert Band, which he led in performances at Carnegie Hall and other tours. Dr. McGinnis held his position as the director of the Concert Band until he retired in 1979. The Donald McGinnis Papers covers the period from 1939-2015; the bulk of the materials date from 1940 to 1990. The collection consists of both personal and professional papers including correspondence, band materials, programs, educational materials, photographs, clippings, scores, and recordings related to Dr. McGinnis's work as a music educator, clarinetist, flutist, and conductor, including his work with the Ohio State University, American Band Masters Association, the Midwest Clinic, the College Band Director's National Association, the Columbus Symphony Orchestra, and the Southeastern Ohio Symphony Orchestra.

Biography

Dr. Donald McGinnis (1917-2016) was a prominent band director, clarinetist, flutist, music educator, and music clinician through the middle and late parts of the 20th century. Dr. McGinnis graduated from Oberlin Conservatory in 1941 with Bachelor of Music degrees in Music Education and Clarinet Performance under George Waln. That same year, McGinnis joined the faculty of Ohio State University (OSU) to teach woodwinds, assist the Concert and Marching Bands, and conduct the regimental bands.

After McGinnis won the Principal Clarinet chair with the Columbus Philharmonic in 1941, he enlisted in the US Navy in May 1942. McGinnis was principal clarinet in the US Navy Pre-Flight School Band and the assistant conductor of the US Navy Preflight School Chamber Orchestra in Iowa City. In 1942, McGinnis also began graduate studies at the University of Iowa with clarinetist Himie Voxman. McGinnis received a commission as Ensign in 1944 and was assigned to the US Naval Communications School at Harvard. After a one-year tour of duty in the South Pacific as a communications officer, McGinnis received an honorable discharge with the rank Lieutenant Junior Grade.

In 1946, McGinnis earned his Master of Arts degree in Education from the University of Iowa, and returned to OSU as the Associate Conductor of the OSU Concert Band and full-time flute professor. McGinnis continued to perform on a part-time basis with the Columbus Philharmonic through 1949 and was appointed Head of the Instrumental Division at OSU in 1950.

From 1951-1953, McGinnis pursued a Ph.D. in Music Composition at the University of Iowa. McGinnis was named Interim Director of the OSU Concert Band in 1952, and was promoted to Associate Professor and Director of the OSU Concert Band in 1953. He led the group in performances at Carnegie Hall, Lincoln Center, national tours, and recording projects. Dr. McGinnis was appointed Chairman of OSU School of Music Performance Division in 1969, Acting Director of the School of Music in 1973, and retired as Professor Emeritus in 1979.

Dr. McGinnis was elected into the American Bandmasters Association (ABA) in 1956, President in 1978, Honorary Life Member in 1999, and Honorary Life President in 2007. Additional awards include the Medal of Honor from the Midwest Clinic in 1988 and honorary memberships in Phi Beta Mu and Tau Beta Sigma.

Dr. McGinnis was active in the College Band Directors National Association (CBDNA), Ohio Music Education Association (OMEA), Music Educators National Convention (MENC), Columbus Symphony Orchestra, Columbus Federation of Music, and National Flute Association. McGinnis guest conducted numerous college, high school, and professional ensembles. He recorded four clarinet albums in the 1960s, and published Etudes for the Advanced Clarinetist in 1969, his 1953 Ph.D. dissertation Symphony for Band in 1977, and pedagogy articles in The Instrumentalist and School Musician throughout his career.

Revision Description

EAD markup validated using Oxygen software by Amanda May, March 2014. In March 2018, Melissa E. Wertheimer updated the date range, abstract, scope and content, and biographical information. Melissa E. Wertheimer also added Series 11, revised arrangement for Series 9 and 10 to include sub-series, wrote Scope and Content notes for Series 9 and 10, and incorporated materials from three additional accessions into revised collection arrangement. In August 2018, Christina Taylor Gibson updated all aspects of the collection to reflect the accrual of new material and the integration of new and old together 2014-03-04 2018-03-08 2018-08-29

Scope and Contents

This series contains letters and emails to and from Dr. McGinnis. All acquisitions without original order indicated have been arranged chronologically in the "general sub-series"; the remainder of the sub-series presently exist as McGinnis or his family members indicated. For this reason there are overlaps of dates and subject matter among sub-series and even material within sub-series spread over several folders.

This series contains programs of concerts that involved Dr. McGinnis as a conductor, clarinetist, or flautist that were not with the OSU Concert Band. As elsewhere, when original order was clear, it was maintained. A box of "keepsake programs" was transferred to archival storage but order and contents reflect McGinnis's sensibilities. There may be significant overlap within this series and beyond it.

Date [inclusive]: 1874-2016, undated

Date [bulk]: 1940-1980, undated

Physical Description: 7.25 Linear Feet

Scope and Contents

Series 11 contains solo, chamber, and large ensemble scores that McGinnis used and created during his playing and conducting career. Scores and parts are holograph, printed, facsimile, and photocopy formats. Sub-Series 1 contains holograph sketches, drafts, and final versions of original compositions and arrangements by Donald McGinnis, many of which remain unpublished. Sub-Series 2 contains musical scores owned by Donald McGinnis composed by other musicians. Ensemble scores include McGinnis's conducting marginalia and sets of performance parts with performance markings. Many band scores are inscribed or include a letter to McGinnis from his teachers, colleagues, and students.

Arrangement

Series 11 is arranged in two sub-series. Sub-Series 1: Compositions and Arrangements by McGinnis. Sub-Series 2: Compositions, Arrangements, and Methods by Others.

Arrangement

Sub-Series 1 arranged alphabetically by composer then title.

Scope and Contents

Series 11, Sub-Series 1 contains sketches, drafts, and final versions of original compositions and arrangements by Donald McGinnis. Scores include holograph notebooks and sketches, a clarinet method, chamber music, concert band works, and orchestral arrangements. Compositions and arrangements in this sub-series are unpublished with the exception of McGinnis's Symphony for Band, his 1953 Ph.D. thesis revised for publication in 1977. An arrangement of note is Carl Maria von Weber's Fantasia and Rondo for clarinet; McGinnis arranged Weber's orchestral accompaniment for band and performed this work as the clarinet soloist. The majority of scores in this sub-series are holograph.

Recordings, 1939-2012, undated

box 35-40

Date [inclusive]: 1939-2012, undated

Scope and Contents

Series 12 contains unreleased and commercial recordings of ensembles conducted by McGinnis, including the OSU Concert Band, Southeastern Ohio Symphony Orchestra, and bands at the Midwest Clinic and Ohio Music Educators Association conventions. This series also contains unreleased and commercial recordings of McGinnis as a solo and chamber music clarinetist and flutist. Solo and chamber music recordings of note include McGinnis's recitals as an undergraduate at Oberlin, a radio broadcast with the US Navy Band, a chamber music concert with the Walden String Quartet, and OSU Faculty Woodwind Quintet recitals. Additional recordings are from and of former flute and clarinet students, many of which are inscribed to McGinnis. Recording formats include 78 RPM discs, LPs, magnetic reels, audio cassettes, and compact discs.

Arrangement

Series 12 is arranged in two sub-series: Sub-Series 1, Recordings of McGinnis; and Sub-Series 2, Collected and Inscribed Recordings of Others.

Appraisal:

Appraisal

In 2018, over 100 recordings were de-accessioned because McGinnis reformatted recordings that exist as original formats in the collection. Additional recordings were de-accessioned because they were not related to McGinnis's career as a performer, conductor, clinician, or educator.

Recordings of McGinnis, 1939-2012, undated (1939-1979, undated)

box 35-39

Date [inclusive]: 1939-2012, undated

Date [bulk]: 1939-1979, undated

Physical Location: L.P. recordings stored on shelf. All other material in this series stored in boxes as indicated.

Scope and Contents

Series 12, Sub-Series 1 contains recordings of McGinnis performing, conducting, and teaching. McGinnis's flute and clarinet recordings include solo and chamber repertoire, the Southeastern Ohio Symphony Orchestra, Columbus Symphony Orchestra, and OSU Faculty Woodwind Quintet. Recordings of McGinnis as a conductor include concert, rehearsal, and clinic recordings with the OSU Concert Band and Southeastern Ohio Symphony Orchestra. Recordings of McGinnis giving flute and clarinet clinics at the Midwest Clinic and American School Band Directors Association are also in this sub-series.

Arrangement

CDs have been arranged according to McGinnis's numbering system except when sleeved with other CDs; in those cases, the CDs remain sleeved as they arrived. Where possible McGinnis's labels have been preserved. Loose labels and track list are gathered in accompanying files.
