GOVERNOR CALLS A MEETING FOR NEXT TUESDAY

TO BE HELD IN BALTIMORE

Board of Directors of the Maryland Agricultural College and the College of Agriculture at the Hotel Senator—A Larger and Better School Proposed—The Fire Loss is Estimated at $250,000—No Interruption to Studies.

News-Post Wire Correspondent.

From a board of chiefs and men of science and wealth, of the administration and dormitory buildings of the Maryland Agricultural College, which were swept by fire late Saturday night, comes this dispatch to the Governor condoling this morning. The administration building, which is the most important of the buildings, will be one of the most important of the legislature. What the legislature of the state, the secretary of the state, and other officials are to do with the building, will be one of the most important of the legislature. The fire, which started in the administration building, raged with great force and speed, consuming the building within a few minutes. The fire was detected in the early hours of the morning, and the fire department was immediately summoned. The fire was brought under control within a short time, and the damage was kept to a minimum. The cause of the fire is unknown, and the investigation is still in progress.
